Several meetings have been held to perfect the union of Fort-street and Bethel Churches, No name has yet been agreed upon. LATEST NEWS.

CHICAGO, September 8.—The "Times" Montreal special of September 7th says The Government organ in Canada has the following to-day, and it is official: It is understood on excellent authority that although the exact working of the Fisheries Commission is not known here, still sufficient of its nature has been ascertained to warrant the assumption that it will not be strictly confined to consideration of the fisheries question proper, and that the scope of the commission will be sufficiently large to enable the commissioners to exercise discretionary powers to consider and report upon commercial questions. Thus the whole matter relating to the fisheries, including any measure in the way of reciprocal arrangements for the interchange of commodities, mutual rearrangement of certain trade relations between the United States and Canada may, it is believed, become subjects for consideration by the commission. This will be a cause for congratulation, as it leads to the hope that through the instrumentality of the commission an amicable and satisfactory settlement on a permanent basis of this long pending question may be arrived at. London, September 7.—Commenting on the invitation received by Gladstone from the Executive Committee to attend the centennial celebration at Philadelphia of the adoption of the American Constitution, the "Times" says: Englishmen will not fail to gratefully recognize the kindly feeling that prompted the invitation. We are sorry, as Gladstone was chosen, that he is unable to accept, but find it difficult to discover how the conclusion was arrived at that Gladstone was peculiarly fitted to represent Eng-United States if an English celebration were in question. Washington, September 12th.—The application of the Governor of Illinois for the extradition of McGarigle, the fugitive Chicago ex-Warden, which has been received at the Department of State, will be reserved for the personal consideration of Secretary Bayard when he returns to the city. As a rule, action upon applications for extradition papers is purely formal, the preliminaries to granting the request consisting merely of an examination into the extradition treaties to ascertain if the offense charged falls within their terms, but it is understood that the present application is based upon charge of conspiracy, for which no provision is made in the existing treaty with Canada. A legal point of gravity is involved in the application, and its consideration may, therefore, occupy some time.
